

‘JUST’ BUSINESS: LABOUR LEADERSHIP ON BUSINESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS’

Chair: Lisa Nandy MP

Speakers:

Kerry McCarthy MP, Shadow Minister for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs

Steve Waygood, Chief Responsible Investment Officer, Aviva Investors

Richard Howitt MEP, EU CSR Rapporteur

Peter Frankental, Economic Relations Programme Director, Amnesty International UK

Slavery found in UK company supply chains; the collapse of the Rana Plaza factory in Bangladesh; corporate tax avoidance robbing developing countries of much-needed money; the destruction of the environment in the Niger Delta due to oil spills – all scandals involving UK companies, and central to the current crisis of public trust in business.

Join us to discuss the political actions needed to deal with irresponsible corporate practices, to meet the growing demands for higher standards from consumers and investors, and to provide access to justice for victims of corporate abuse.

Location: Manchester Central, Exchange 10

Time: 19:00 to 20:00

Date: Sunday 21 September 2014
